Freeman's Presents Opening Reception in ARTWRKD Exhibition Space

Philadelphia, PA – Freeman's, a distinguished auction house, is thrilled to announce the opening reception for their preview in the ARTWRKD Exhibition Space in collaboration with Ashara Shapiro and ARTWRKD. This exclusive event will take place on October 19th, Thursday evening, from 6:00 pm to 9:00 pm at 128 South State Street, Newtown Historic Borough.

Attendees will have the unique opportunity to preview select works from Freeman's upcoming Fall/Winter 2023-2024 fine art sales, commencing with the highly anticipated November 5th Modern and Contemporary Art auction in Philadelphia. The exhibition will feature an impressive array of artworks, spanning ceramics by the iconic Keith Haring to canvases by celebrated Pennsylvania artists.

The ARTWRKD Exhibition Space will showcase a curated selection of works by American and European artists, spanning from the 19th through the 21st centuries. This special exhibition promises a diverse and captivating glimpse into the world of fine art.

Freeman's team of specialists will be present at the event to provide insights and answer any questions about the exhibited works, the current art market, or the auction process. This is an excellent opportunity for art enthusiasts, collectors, and the public to engage with experts and gain a deeper understanding of the art world.
